Merger of Investment Choices

- Merger of JPMorgan Indonesia Fund (JFINU), JPMorgan Malaysia Fund (JFMAU) and JPMorgan Philippine Fund (JFPFU) (the “Merging Investment Choices”) into JPMorgan ASEAN Fund (JFASU) (the “Receiving Investment Choice”)

As advised by the director of JPMorgan Funds (Asia) Limited, JPMorgan Indonesia Fund, JPMorgan Malaysia Fund and JPMorgan Philippine Fund (the “Merging Underlying Funds”), the respective underlying funds of the Merging Investment Choices, will be merged into JPMorgan ASEAN Fund (the “Receiving Underlying Fund”), the underlying fund of the Receiving Investment Choice, with effect from 20 September 2024 (the “Effective Date”).

In alignment with the merger of the underlying funds and based on the right of merger of investment choices granted to us under the section of “Closure of Investment Choice” or “Fund Closure” as set out in the respective policy provisions, we will merge the Merging Investment Choices into the Receiving Investment Choice available under the Schemes on the Effective Date (the “Merger”). Please refer to the appendix for the details of the Merging Investment Choices and Receiving Investment Choice.

Background to and rationale for the Merger

Pursuant to the trust deed of the Merging Underlying Funds, JPMorgan Funds (Asia) Limited, the manager of the Merging Underlying Funds (the “Manager”), in consultation with HSBC Institutional Trust Services (Asia) Limited, the trustee of the Merging Underlying Funds (the “Trustee”), may carry out a merger of the Merging Underlying Funds into the Receiving Underlying Fund (the “Underlying Fund Merger”), if at any time the net asset value of the Merging Underlying Funds shall be less than US$70,000,000 (the “Small Fund Size Threshold”).

Since the net asset value of the Merging Underlying Funds has fallen below the Small Fund Size Threshold for a sustained period of time, the Manager considers it to have limited growth potential. The Manager believes the Underlying Fund Merger to be in the best interest of investors as it will create a larger pool of assets which should not only provide potential economies of scale but also enhance fund management efficiency as the Receiving Underlying Fund has a lower ongoing charges figure. In addition, the Receiving Underlying Fund invests in countries comprising the Association of South East Asian Nations, hence offers a better diversification than the Merging Underlying Funds which are single country emerging markets funds. The Merging Underlying Funds have been closed for subscription since 20 June 2024 except for investment from existing investors through regular investment plan and specific channels, which will still be permissible up to 12 September 2024. Switching out or redemption of current holding in the Merging Underlying Funds will be accepted up to 12 September 2024.

Portfolio rebalancing

Rebalancing of the assets in the Merging Underlying Funds will be required in preparation for the Underlying Fund Merger. All or part of the Merging Underlying Funds’ assets will be held in cash for a short period in preparation for the Underlying Fund Merger, resulting in the Merging Underlying Funds not following their respective investment policy and investment restrictions, and having less market exposure which may have a positive or negative impact on performance. It is expected that the Manager will commence the rebalancing no earlier than 15 business days prior to the Effective Date. The transaction costs associated with portfolio rebalancing of the respective Merging Underlying Funds (as detailed below) will be borne by the respective Merging Underlying Funds. Please note that investors who remain in the Merging Underlying Funds when such portfolio rebalancing is carried out will be impacted. The legal, mailing and other administrative expenses associated with the Underlying Fund Merger of the respective Merging Underlying Funds (as detailed below) will also be borne by the Merging Underlying Funds. There are no unamortised establishment costs outstanding relating to the Merging Underlying Funds.

Merging Underlying Fund	Estimated transaction costs (% of net asset value as of 27 May 2024)	Estimated legal, mailing and other administrative expenses (% of net asset value as of 27 May 2024)
JPMorgan Indonesia Fund	0.18%	0.10%
JPMorgan Malaysia Fund	0.21%	0.05%
JPMorgan Philippine Fund	0.67%	0.07%

Consequential to the Merger, the following changes/ arrangement will apply to the Merging Investment Choices.

a) Closure of New Subscription/ New Premium Allocation/ Switch-in

With effect from the date of this notice, the Merging Investment Choices is closed for any new subscription, new instruction for regular premium allocation and switch-in. However, this restriction does not apply to the subscription made under existing regular premium allocation instruction.

b) Change of Existing Regular Premium Allocation

If you have existing regular premium allocation to the Merging Investment Choices, you may redirect to other investment choice(s) available under the Schemes free of charge by submitting a change instruction to us by 5:30p.m. (or 7:00p.m. through the online system) on 11 September 2024 (the "Redirection Deadline"). However, if we do not receive your change instruction by the Redirection Deadline, your existing regular premium allocation to the Merging Investment Choices will be automatically changed to the Receiving Investment Choice by 11:59p.m. on 11 September 2024 free of charge.

c) Switching of Existing Notional Units of Merging Investment Choices

If you have any existing notional unit holdings of the Merging Investment Choices, you may switch the holdings to other investment choice(s) available under the Schemes free of charge by submitting a switching request to us by 5:30p.m. (or 7:00p.m. through the online system) on 11 September 2024 (the "Switching Deadline"). However, if we do not receive your switching request by the Switching Deadline, your notional unit holdings of the Merging Investment Choices will be automatically exchanged for the notional units of the Receiving Investment Choice by an exchange ratio free of charge on the Effective Date. The exchange ratio will be calculated by dividing the net asset value per share of each of the Merging Underlying Funds calculated on 20 September 2024 by the net asset value per share in the Receiving Underlying Fund calculated at the same time on 20 September 2024 which is the same as the basis of unit conversion of the Merging Underlying Funds*.

d) Dealing Arrangement

Redemption and switching from Merging Investment Choices will cease after 11 September 2024. Holders of notional units of the Merging Investment Choices may deal in their newly issued notional units of the Receiving Investment Choice from the dealing day on 23 September 2024 onwards.

You can make the request for change of existing regular premium allocation and switching of existing notional units of the Merging Investment Choices by using the "Request for Change of Policy Value/Account Value Arrangement Form (A15)". If you have registered for the e-Policy Service account, you can also submit such request through the online system (www.yflife.com).

Please note that all the relevant costs for the Merger will be borne by the Company.

Investment involves risks. You should refer to the relevant offering documents and the notice to shareholders of the underlying fund(s) of the above investment choice(s), which are made available by YF Life Insurance International Ltd. upon request, or visit our website (www.yflife.com) to carefully read the details of the relevant documents in relation to the above change(s).

If you have selected the above investment choice(s) under your insurance policy and if for any reason you wish to change to other investment choice(s), you may switch your investment choice(s) to other available investment choice(s) provided by your policy. Currently, no switching charge and bid-offer spread apply to the investment choices. *The issue of units of the Receiving Underlying Fund shall be made to investors on the basis of the following formula:

$$N = C / P$$

Where:

N = Number of units in the Receiving Underlying Fund (rounded to 3 decimal places) issued to the investors

P = Net asset value per unit of the Receiving Underlying Fund (rounded to 2 decimal places)

C = M x Q with the resultant sum rounded to 2 decimal places

M = Number of units and fractions thereof in the Merging Underlying Fund held by the investors

Q = Net asset value per unit of the Merging Underlying Fund (rounded to 4 decimal places) after the deduction of an appropriate amount as the trustee and the manager determine to be appropriate to meet all outstanding liabilities of the Merging Underlying Fund

20 June 2024

Dear Investor,

Merger of JPMorgan Indonesia Fund into JPMorgan ASEAN Fund

We are writing to notify you that JPMorgan Indonesia Fund (the “Merging Fund”) will be merged into JPMorgan ASEAN Fund (the “Receiving Fund”) on 20 September 2024 (the “Merger Date”).

Pursuant to paragraph 30A of the base terms dated 31 October 2023 (which have been incorporated by way of an amended and restated trust deed into the Merging Fund’s trust deed dated 19 September 2006, as further amended and supplemented from time to time (the “Trust Deed”), JPMorgan Funds (Asia) Limited, the manager of the Merging Fund (the “Manager”), in consultation with HSBC Institutional Trust Services (Asia) Limited, the trustee of the Merging Fund (the “Trustee”), may carry out a merger of the Merging Fund into the Receiving Fund (the “Merger”), if at any time the net asset value of the Merging Fund shall be less than US$70,000,000 (the “Small Fund Size Threshold”).

Since the net asset value of the Merging Fund has fallen below the Small Fund Size Threshold for a sustained period of time, the Manager considers it to have limited growth potential. The Manager believes the Merger to be in the best interest of unitholders as it will create a larger pool of assets which should not only provide potential economies of scale but also enhance fund management efficiency as the Receiving Fund has a lower ongoing charges figure. In addition, the Receiving Fund invests in countries comprising the Association of South East Asian Nations, hence offers a better diversification than the Merging Fund which is a single country emerging markets fund.

Please refer to Enclosure I which highlights the key differences and similarities between the Merging Fund and the Receiving Fund (including the investment objective and policies, key risk factors, fund size, fees and charges and ongoing charges figure) for reference. Unitholders should also refer to the relevant sections of the Consolidated Explanatory Memoranda and the relevant Product Key Fact Statements which set out a description of the investment policies and specific risk factors of the Merging Fund and the Receiving Fund.

The Merging Fund currently has only one class, i.e., JPMorgan Indonesia (acc) - USD, which will be merged into JPMorgan ASEAN (acc) - USD of the Receiving Fund.

With effect from and including the date of this letter, the Merging Fund is no longer allowed to be marketed to the public in Hong Kong, and further subscription and switching into the Merging Fund will be suspended, except for investment from existing investors through regular investment plan¹, eScheduler² and pension schemes, which will still be permissible (insofar as there is no increase in the scheduled contribution amount) up to 5:00 p.m. (Hong Kong time) on 12 September 2024.

Units held by unitholders in the Merging Fund, including those units invested through the regular investment plan, eScheduler and pension schemes, will be exchanged for units in the Receiving Fund on the Merger Date. The Merger will be in accordance with the terms and arrangements as set out in Enclosure II “Details of the Merger Process”. Units in the Merging Fund will be exchanged for units in the Receiving Fund on the basis of the formula set out in Enclosure II. In particular, the Merging Fund’s assets will be transferred to the Receiving Fund on the Merger Date after deduction of such amount as appropriate to meet all outstanding liabilities of the Merging Fund. Unitholders should also note that the net asset value per unit of the Merging Fund and the Receiving Fund on the Merger Date may not necessarily be the same. Therefore, while the overall value of your holding (except for rounding adjustments, if any) will remain the same, you may receive a different number of units in the Receiving Fund from what you previously held in the Merging Fund.

The units in the Receiving Fund received as a result of the Merger will be available for dealing starting from and including 23 September 2024. The contract notes for the disposal of units in the Merging Fund and the issue of units in the Receiving Fund will be issued as soon as practicable after the Merger Date.

If you do not wish to hold units in the Receiving Fund after the Merger Date, we are pleased to offer you the opportunity to switch your current holding in the Merging Fund, free of charge³, into any other funds which are managed by the Manager or for which it acts as Hong Kong representative⁴ and are authorised by the Securities and Futures Commission (the “SFC”)⁵, provided that we receive your switching instruction from the date of this letter up to and including 5:00 p.m. (Hong Kong time) on 12 September 2024. The details of such funds (including the relevant offering documents) can be found on our website am.jpmorgan.com/hk⁶. If you prefer to redeem your holding in the Merging Fund, you may do so up to and including 5:00 p.m. (Hong Kong time) on 12 September 2024, free of charge³.

Should there be any significant redemption from the Merging Fund prior to the Merger, the Manager may, with due care, skill and diligence, and in consultation with the Trustee, apply any liquidity risk management tools specified in the sub-section entitled “Liquidity Risk Management” under the section entitled “GENERAL” in the Consolidated Explanatory Memoranda to ensure unitholders are treated fairly.

Where the net capital inflow of the Receiving Fund on the Merger Date (including any cash transfer from the Merging Fund) exceeds the threshold pre-determined by the Manager from time to time, the Manager may make adjustment to the net asset value per unit of the Receiving

¹ For investors dealing directly via JPMorgan Funds (Asia) Limited, please note that your existing regular investment plan with respect to the Merging Fund will be suspended after 5:00 p.m. (Hong Kong time) on 12 September 2024. As amendments to regular investment plans are no longer accepted, if you wish to set up a new regular investment instruction on the Receiving Fund, you may do so via eScheduler on J.P. Morgan eTrading platform (now branded as J.P. Morgan DIRECT Investment Platform). If you invest through a bank, a distributor other than JPMorgan Funds (Asia) Limited or a financial adviser, please note that the arrangement of your regular investment plan may be different. You are advised to contact your bank, distributor or financial adviser should you have any questions.

² The eScheduler is only available to clients dealing via J.P. Morgan eTrading platform (now branded as J.P. Morgan DIRECT Investment Platform) in Hong Kong. Please note that your existing eScheduler with respect to the Merging Fund will be suspended after 5:00 p.m. (Hong Kong time) on 12 September 2024. If you wish to set up a new eScheduler instruction on the Receiving Fund, you may do so via J.P. Morgan eTrading platform (now branded as J.P. Morgan DIRECT Investment Platform).

³ Please note that although we will not impose any charges in respect of your redemption/switching instructions, your bank, distributor, financial adviser or pension scheme trustee or administrator may charge you redemption/switching and/or transaction fees and may impose different dealing arrangements. You are advised to contact your bank, distributor or financial adviser, pension scheme trustee or administrator should you have any questions.

⁴ Please note that, as provided in the relevant offering documents of the funds, the Manager or the Hong Kong representative (as applicable) of each such fund has the discretion to accept or reject in whole or in part any application for units or shares (as the case may be) in the fund.

Fund upwards on the Merger Date in accordance with the base terms of the Receiving Fund, which in turn may impact the number of units in the Receiving Fund that you may receive. For details of the adjustment mechanism, please refer to the “SWING PRICING” section in the Consolidated Explanatory Memoranda.

The transaction costs associated with portfolio rebalancing of the Merging Fund in preparation for the Merger (see Enclosure II for details), estimated to be approximately 0.18% of the net asset value of the Merging Fund as of 27 May 2024, will be borne by the Merging Fund. Please note that unitholders who remain in the Merging Fund when such portfolio rebalancing is carried out will be impacted. The legal, mailing and other administrative expenses associated with the Merger are estimated to be approximately 0.10% of the net asset value of the Merging Fund as of 27 May 2024 and will also be borne by the Merging Fund. There are no unamortised establishment costs outstanding relating to the Merging Fund.

The Merger will have no Hong Kong profits tax implications to the Merging Fund or the Receiving Fund. Unitholders of the Merging Fund should note that the exchange of units in the Merging Fund for units in the Receiving Fund pursuant to the Merger may be considered as a disposal of the units in the Merging Fund for tax purposes and any gains derived may be subject to tax. Generally, unitholders will not be liable to Hong Kong profits tax on gains realised on the disposal of units, except where the acquisition and disposal of units are or form part of a trade, profession or business carried on by the unitholders in Hong Kong and the gains are revenue in nature for Hong Kong profits tax purposes. The classification of a gain as revenue or capital will depend on the particular circumstances of the unitholders (i.e. their own individual tax residency status). Unitholders should take advice from their own professional advisors as to their particular tax position.

The trust deeds of the Merging Fund and the Receiving Fund are available for inspection free of charge during normal working hours at the registered office of JPMorgan Funds (Asia) Limited⁷. The Consolidated Explanatory Memoranda and the Product Key Facts Statements of the Merging Fund and the Receiving Fund are available free of charge upon request during normal working hours at the registered office of JPMorgan Funds (Asia) Limited⁷, and on our website am.jpmorgan.com/hk⁶.

Details of the Merger Process¹

1. The Trustee and the Manager shall transfer all the Merging Fund's assets (after deduction of such amount as the Trustee and the Manager determine to be appropriate to meet all outstanding liabilities of the Merging Fund) to the Receiving Fund on the Merger Date in consideration for the issue of units of the Receiving Fund to the unitholders of the Merging Fund (the "Unitholders").
2. Rebalancing of the assets in the Merging Fund will be required in preparation for the Merger. All or part of the Merging Fund's assets will be held in cash for a short period in preparation for the Merger, resulting in the Merging Fund not following its investment policy and investment restrictions, and having less market exposure which may have a positive or negative impact on performance. It is expected that the Manager will commence the rebalancing no earlier than 15 business days prior to the Merger Date. The transaction costs associated with portfolio rebalancing, estimated to be approximately 0.18% of the net asset value of the Merging Fund as of 27 May 2024, will be borne by the Merging Fund. Please note that unitholders who remain in the Merging Fund when such portfolio rebalancing is carried out will be impacted.
3. The Merging Fund shall terminate on the Merger Date following the final transfer (in accordance with paragraph 1 above) of the Merging Fund's assets to the Receiving Fund.
4. The Trustee and the Manager will take reasonable care to ensure the provision for liabilities of the Merging Fund to be a fair estimate. If there shall be any surplus after discharging all outstanding liabilities of the Merging Fund, the Manager shall arrange for that surplus to be transferred to the Receiving Fund. If the provision for liabilities is insufficient to discharge all outstanding liabilities of the Merging Fund, the Manager shall bear the deficit at its own cost.
5. The issue of units of the Receiving Fund shall be made to Unitholders on the basis of the following formula:

$$N = C / P$$

Where:

N = Number of units in the relevant class of the Receiving Fund (rounded to 3 decimal places²) issued to the Unitholder

P = Net asset value per unit of the relevant class of the Receiving Fund (rounded to 2 decimal places)

C = M x Q with the resultant sum rounded to 2 decimal places

M = Number of units and fractions thereof in the relevant class of the Merging Fund held by the Unitholder

Q = Net asset value per unit of the relevant class of the Merging Fund (rounded to 4 decimal places³) after the deduction of an appropriate amount as set out in paragraph 1 above.

² Due to rounding adjustment, please note that you may not receive any units in the Receiving Fund in case the number of units of the Receiving Fund issued to you pursuant to the Merger is less than 0.001.

³ Please note that this rounding treatment only applies to the Merger in the calculation of the number of units in the Receiving Fund that will be issued to Unitholders, and is intended to reduce the impact of rounding in the calculation so that the number of units that Unitholders will receive will more accurately reflect the value of their holdings in the Merging Fund on the Merger Date.

Enclosure II

6. Where the net capital inflow of the Receiving Fund on the Merger Date (including any cash transfer from the Merging Fund) exceeds the threshold pre-determined by the Manager from time to time, the Manager may make adjustment to the net asset value per unit of the Receiving Fund upwards on the Merger Date in accordance with the base terms of the Receiving Fund, which in turn may impact the number of units in the Receiving Fund that you may receive. For details of the adjustment mechanism, please refer to the “SWING PRICING” section in the Consolidated Explanatory Memoranda.
7. All liabilities attributable to the Merging Fund or the Receiving Fund prior to the Merger Date shall be binding solely upon the Merging Fund or the Receiving Fund as the case may be. In calculating the liabilities of the Merging Fund or the Receiving Fund for the purposes of the net asset value, the Manager or, as the case may be, the manager of the Receiving Fund shall value such liabilities in accordance with the normal accounting policies or valuation principles of the Merging Fund or the Receiving Fund, as the case may be.
8. The provisions in this Enclosure shall have effect subject to such modifications or additions as the Manager and the Trustee may from time to time approve in writing and consider it is in the best interests of Unitholders.

20 June 2024

Dear Investor,

Merger of JPMorgan Malaysia Fund into JPMorgan ASEAN Fund

We are writing to notify you that JPMorgan Malaysia Fund (the “Merging Fund”) will be merged into JPMorgan ASEAN Fund (the “Receiving Fund”) on 20 September 2024 (the “Merger Date”).

Pursuant to paragraph 30A of the base terms dated 31 October 2023 (which have been incorporated by way of an amended and restated trust deed into the Merging Fund’s trust deed dated 12 December 1989, as further amended and supplemented from time to time (the “Trust Deed”), JPMorgan Funds (Asia) Limited, the manager of the Merging Fund (the “Manager”), in consultation with HSBC Institutional Trust Services (Asia) Limited, the trustee of the Merging Fund (the “Trustee”), may carry out a merger of the Merging Fund into the Receiving Fund (the “Merger”), if at any time the net asset value of the Merging Fund shall be less than US$70,000,000 (the “Small Fund Size Threshold”).

Since the net asset value of the Merging Fund has fallen below the Small Fund Size Threshold for a sustained period of time, the Manager considers it to have limited growth potential. The Manager believes the Merger to be in the best interest of unitholders as it will create a larger pool of assets which should not only provide potential economies of scale but also enhance fund management efficiency as the Receiving Fund has a lower ongoing charges figure. In addition, the Receiving Fund invests in countries comprising the Association of South East Asian Nations, hence offers a better diversification than the Merging Fund which is a single country emerging markets fund.

Please refer to Enclosure I which highlights the key differences and similarities between the Merging Fund and the Receiving Fund (including the investment objective and policies, key risk factors, fund size, fees and charges and ongoing charges figure) for reference. Unitholders should also refer to the relevant sections of the Consolidated Explanatory Memoranda and the relevant Product Key Fact Statements which set out a description of the investment policies and specific risk factors of the Merging Fund and the Receiving Fund.

The Merging Fund currently has two classes, i.e., JPMorgan Malaysia (acc) - USD and JPMorgan Malaysia - Class C (acc) - USD, which will be respectively merged into JPMorgan ASEAN (acc) - USD and JPMorgan ASEAN - Class C (acc) - USD of the Receiving Fund.

With effect from and including the date of this letter, the Merging Fund is no longer allowed to be marketed to the public in Hong Kong, and further subscription and switching into the Merging Fund will be suspended, except for investment from existing investors through regular investment plan¹, eScheduler² and pension schemes, which will still be permissible (insofar as there is no increase in the scheduled contribution amount) up to 5:00 p.m. (Hong Kong time) on 12 September 2024.

Units held by unitholders in the Merging Fund, including those units invested through the regular investment plan, eScheduler and pension schemes, will be exchanged for units in the Receiving Fund on the Merger Date. The Merger will be in accordance with the terms and arrangements as set out in Enclosure II “Details of the Merger Process”. Units in the Merging Fund will be exchanged for units in the Receiving Fund on the basis of the formula set out in Enclosure II. In particular, the Merging Fund’s assets will be transferred to the Receiving Fund on the Merger Date after deduction of such amount as appropriate to meet all outstanding liabilities of the Merging Fund. Unitholders should also note that the net asset value per unit of the Merging Fund and the Receiving Fund on the Merger Date may not necessarily be the same. Therefore, while the overall value of your holding (except for rounding adjustments, if any) will remain the same, you may receive a different number of units in the Receiving Fund from what you previously held in the Merging Fund.

The units in the Receiving Fund received as a result of the Merger will be available for dealing starting from and including 23 September 2024. The contract notes for the disposal of units in the Merging Fund and the issue of units in the Receiving Fund will be issued as soon as practicable after the Merger Date.

If you do not wish to hold units in the Receiving Fund after the Merger Date, we are pleased to offer you the opportunity to switch your current holding in the Merging Fund, free of charge³, into any other funds which are managed by the Manager or for which it acts as Hong Kong representative⁴ and are authorised by the Securities and Futures Commission (the “SFC”)⁵, provided that we receive your switching instruction from the date of this letter up to and including 5:00 p.m. (Hong Kong time) on 12 September 2024. The details of such funds (including the relevant offering documents) can be found on our website am.jpmorgan.com/hk⁶. If you prefer to redeem your holding in the Merging Fund, you may do so up to and including 5:00 p.m. (Hong Kong time) on 12 September 2024, free of charge³.

Should there be any significant redemption from the Merging Fund prior to the Merger, the Manager may, with due care, skill and diligence, and in consultation with the Trustee, apply any liquidity risk management tools specified in the sub-section entitled “Liquidity Risk Management” under the section entitled “GENERAL” in the Consolidated Explanatory Memoranda to ensure unitholders are treated fairly.

Where the net capital inflow of the Receiving Fund on the Merger Date (including any cash transfer from the Merging Fund) exceeds the threshold pre-determined by the Manager from time to time, the Manager may make adjustment to the net asset value per unit of the Receiving

¹ For investors dealing directly via JPMorgan Funds (Asia) Limited, please note that your existing regular investment plan with respect to the Merging Fund will be suspended after 5:00 p.m. (Hong Kong time) on 12 September 2024. As amendments to regular investment plans are no longer accepted, if you wish to set up a new regular investment instruction on the Receiving Fund, you may do so via eScheduler on J.P. Morgan eTrading platform (now branded as J.P. Morgan DIRECT Investment Platform). If you invest through a bank, a distributor other than JPMorgan Funds (Asia) Limited or a financial adviser, please note that the arrangement of your regular investment plan may be different. You are advised to contact your bank, distributor or financial adviser should you have any questions.

² The eScheduler is only available to clients dealing via J.P. Morgan eTrading platform (now branded as J.P. Morgan DIRECT Investment Platform) in Hong Kong. Please note that your existing eScheduler with respect to the Merging Fund will be suspended after 5:00 p.m. (Hong Kong time) on 12 September 2024. If you wish to set up a new eScheduler instruction on the Receiving Fund, you may do so via J.P. Morgan eTrading platform (now branded as J.P. Morgan DIRECT Investment Platform).

³ Please note that although we will not impose any charges in respect of your redemption/switching instructions, your bank, distributor, financial adviser or pension scheme trustee or administrator may charge you redemption/switching and/or transaction fees and may impose different dealing arrangements. You are advised to contact your bank, distributor or financial adviser, pension scheme trustee or administrator should you have any questions.

⁴ Please note that, as provided in the relevant offering documents of the funds, the Manager or the Hong Kong representative (as applicable) of each such fund has the discretion to accept or reject in whole or in part any application for units or shares (as the case may be) in the fund.

Fund upwards on the Merger Date in accordance with the base terms of the Receiving Fund, which in turn may impact the number of units in the Receiving Fund that you may receive. For details of the adjustment mechanism, please refer to the “SWING PRICING” section in the Consolidated Explanatory Memoranda.

The transaction costs associated with portfolio rebalancing of the Merging Fund in preparation for the Merger (see Enclosure II for details), estimated to be approximately 0.21% of the net asset value of the Merging Fund as of 27 May 2024, will be borne by the Merging Fund. Please note that unitholders who remain in the Merging Fund when such portfolio rebalancing is carried out will be impacted. The legal, mailing and other administrative expenses associated with the Merger are estimated to be approximately 0.05% of the net asset value of the Merging Fund as of 27 May 2024 and will also be borne by the Merging Fund. There are no unamortised establishment costs outstanding relating to the Merging Fund.

The Merger will have no Hong Kong profits tax implications to the Merging Fund or the Receiving Fund. Unitholders of the Merging Fund should note that the exchange of units in the Merging Fund for units in the Receiving Fund pursuant to the Merger may be considered as a disposal of the units in the Merging Fund for tax purposes and any gains derived may be subject to tax. Generally, unitholders will not be liable to Hong Kong profits tax on gains realised on the disposal of units, except where the acquisition and disposal of units are or form part of a trade, profession or business carried on by the unitholders in Hong Kong and the gains are revenue in nature for Hong Kong profits tax purposes. The classification of a gain as revenue or capital will depend on the particular circumstances of the unitholders (i.e. their own individual tax residency status). Unitholders should take advice from their own professional advisors as to their particular tax position.

The trust deeds of the Merging Fund and the Receiving Fund are available for inspection free of charge during normal working hours at the registered office of JPMorgan Funds (Asia) Limited⁷. The Consolidated Explanatory Memoranda and the Product Key Facts Statements of the Merging Fund and the Receiving Fund are available free of charge upon request during normal working hours at the registered office of JPMorgan Funds (Asia) Limited⁷, and on our website am.jpmorgan.com/hk⁶.

1. The Trustee and the Manager shall transfer all the Merging Fund's assets (after deduction of such amount as the Trustee and the Manager determine to be appropriate to meet all outstanding liabilities of the Merging Fund) to the Receiving Fund on the Merger Date in consideration for the issue of units of the Receiving Fund to the unitholders of the Merging Fund (the "Unitholders").
2. Rebalancing of the assets in the Merging Fund will be required in preparation for the Merger. All or part of the Merging Fund's assets will be held in cash for a short period in preparation for the Merger, resulting in the Merging Fund not following its investment policy and investment restrictions, and having less market exposure which may have a positive or negative impact on performance. It is expected that the Manager will commence the rebalancing no earlier than 15 business days prior to the Merger Date. The transaction costs associated with portfolio rebalancing, estimated to be approximately 0.21% of the net asset value of the Merging Fund as of 27 May 2024, will be borne by the Merging Fund. Please note that unitholders who remain in the Merging Fund when such portfolio rebalancing is carried out will be impacted.
3. The Merging Fund shall terminate on the Merger Date following the final transfer (in accordance with paragraph 1 above) of the Merging Fund's assets to the Receiving Fund.
4. The Trustee and the Manager will take reasonable care to ensure the provision for liabilities of the Merging Fund to be a fair estimate. If there shall be any surplus after discharging all outstanding liabilities of the Merging Fund, the Manager shall arrange for that surplus to be transferred to the Receiving Fund. If the provision for liabilities is insufficient to discharge all outstanding liabilities of the Merging Fund, the Manager shall bear the deficit at its own cost.
5. The issue of units of the Receiving Fund shall be made to Unitholders on the basis of the following formula:

$$N = C / P$$

Where:

N = Number of units in the relevant class of the Receiving Fund (rounded to 3 decimal places²) issued to the Unitholder

P = Net asset value per unit of the relevant class of the Receiving Fund (rounded to 2 decimal places)

C = M x Q with the resultant sum rounded to 2 decimal places

M = Number of units and fractions thereof in the relevant class of the Merging Fund held by the Unitholder

Q = Net asset value per unit of the relevant class of the Merging Fund (rounded to 4 decimal places³) after the deduction of an appropriate amount as set out in paragraph 1 above.

² Due to rounding adjustment, please note that you may not receive any units in the Receiving Fund in case the number of units of the Receiving Fund issued to you pursuant to the Merger is less than 0.001.

³ Please note that this rounding treatment only applies to the Merger in the calculation of the number of units in the Receiving Fund that will be issued to Unitholders, and is intended to reduce the impact of rounding in the calculation so that the number of units that Unitholders will receive will more accurately reflect the value of their holdings in the Merging Fund on the Merger Date.

Enclosure II

6. Where the net capital inflow of the Receiving Fund on the Merger Date (including any cash transfer from the Merging Fund) exceeds the threshold pre-determined by the Manager from time to time, the Manager may make adjustment to the net asset value per unit of the Receiving Fund upwards on the Merger Date in accordance with the base terms of the Receiving Fund, which in turn may impact the number of units in the Receiving Fund that you may receive. For details of the adjustment mechanism, please refer to the “SWING PRICING” section in the Consolidated Explanatory Memoranda.
7. All liabilities attributable to the Merging Fund or the Receiving Fund prior to the Merger Date shall be binding solely upon the Merging Fund or the Receiving Fund as the case may be. In calculating the liabilities of the Merging Fund or the Receiving Fund for the purposes of the net asset value, the Manager or, as the case may be, the manager of the Receiving Fund shall value such liabilities in accordance with the normal accounting policies or valuation principles of the Merging Fund or the Receiving Fund, as the case may be.
8. The provisions in this Enclosure shall have effect subject to such modifications or additions as the Manager and the Trustee may from time to time approve in writing and consider it is in the best interests of Unitholders.

Dear Investor,

Merger of JPMorgan Philippine Fund into JPMorgan ASEAN Fund

We are writing to notify you that JPMorgan Philippine Fund (the “Merging Fund”) will be merged into JPMorgan ASEAN Fund (the “Receiving Fund”) on 20 September 2024 (the “Merger Date”).

Pursuant to paragraph 30A of the base terms dated 31 October 2023 (which have been incorporated by way of an amended and restated trust deed into the Merging Fund’s trust deed dated 29 July 1974, as further amended and supplemented from time to time (the “Trust Deed”), JPMorgan Funds (Asia) Limited, the manager of the Merging Fund (the “Manager”), in consultation with HSBC Institutional Trust Services (Asia) Limited, the trustee of the Merging Fund (the “Trustee”), may carry out a merger of the Merging Fund into the Receiving Fund (the “Merger”), if at any time the net asset value of the Merging Fund shall be less than US$70,000,000 (the “Small Fund Size Threshold”).

Since the net asset value of the Merging Fund has fallen below the Small Fund Size Threshold for a sustained period of time, the Manager considers it to have limited growth potential. The Manager believes the Merger to be in the best interest of unitholders as it will create a larger pool of assets which should not only provide potential economies of scale but also enhance fund management efficiency as the Receiving Fund has a lower ongoing charges figure. In addition, the Receiving Fund invests in countries comprising the Association of South East Asian Nations, hence offers a better diversification than the Merging Fund which is a single country emerging markets fund.

Please refer to Enclosure I which highlights the key differences and similarities between the Merging Fund and the Receiving Fund (including the investment objective and policies, key risk factors, fund size, fees and charges and ongoing charges figure) for reference. Unitholders should also refer to the relevant sections of the Consolidated Explanatory Memoranda and the relevant Product Key Fact Statements which set out a description of the investment policies and specific risk factors of the Merging Fund and the Receiving Fund.

The Merging Fund currently has two classes, i.e., JPMorgan Philippine (acc) - USD and JPMorgan Philippine - Class C (acc) - USD, which will be respectively merged into JPMorgan ASEAN (acc) - USD and JPMorgan ASEAN - Class C (acc) - USD of the Receiving Fund.

With effect from and including the date of this letter, the Merging Fund is no longer allowed to be marketed to the public in Hong Kong, and further subscription and switching into the Merging Fund will be suspended, except for investment from existing investors through regular investment plan¹, eScheduler² and pension schemes, which will still be permissible (insofar as there is no increase in the scheduled contribution amount) up to 5:00 p.m. (Hong Kong time) on 12 September 2024.

Units held by unitholders in the Merging Fund, including those units invested through the regular investment plan, eScheduler and pension schemes, will be exchanged for units in the Receiving Fund on the Merger Date. The Merger will be in accordance with the terms and arrangements as set out in Enclosure II “Details of the Merger Process”. Units in the Merging Fund will be exchanged for units in the Receiving Fund on the basis of the formula set out in Enclosure II. In particular, the Merging Fund’s assets will be transferred to the Receiving Fund on the Merger Date after deduction of such amount as appropriate to meet all outstanding liabilities of the Merging Fund. Unitholders should also note that the net asset value per unit of the Merging Fund and the Receiving Fund on the Merger Date may not necessarily be the same. Therefore, while the overall value of your holding (except for rounding adjustments, if any) will remain the same, you may receive a different number of units in the Receiving Fund from what you previously held in the Merging Fund.

The units in the Receiving Fund received as a result of the Merger will be available for dealing starting from and including 23 September 2024. The contract notes for the disposal of units in the Merging Fund and the issue of units in the Receiving Fund will be issued as soon as practicable after the Merger Date.

If you do not wish to hold units in the Receiving Fund after the Merger Date, we are pleased to offer you the opportunity to switch your current holding in the Merging Fund, free of charge³, into any other funds which are managed by the Manager or for which it acts as Hong Kong representative⁴ and are authorised by the Securities and Futures Commission (the “SFC”)⁵, provided that we receive your switching instruction from the date of this letter up to and including 5:00 p.m. (Hong Kong time) on 12 September 2024. The details of such funds (including the relevant offering documents) can be found on our website am.jpmorgan.com/hk⁶. If you prefer to redeem your holding in the Merging Fund, you may do so up to and including 5:00 p.m. (Hong Kong time) on 12 September 2024, free of charge³.

Should there be any significant redemption from the Merging Fund prior to the Merger, the Manager may, with due care, skill and diligence, and in consultation with the Trustee, apply any liquidity risk management tools specified in the sub-section entitled “Liquidity Risk Management” under the section entitled “GENERAL” in the Consolidated Explanatory Memoranda to ensure unitholders are treated fairly.

Where the net capital inflow of the Receiving Fund on the Merger Date (including any cash transfer from the Merging Fund) exceeds the threshold pre-determined by the Manager from time to time, the Manager may make adjustment to the net asset value per unit of the Receiving

¹ For investors dealing directly via JPMorgan Funds (Asia) Limited, please note that your existing regular investment plan with respect to the Merging Fund will be suspended after 5:00 p.m. (Hong Kong time) on 12 September 2024. As amendments to regular investment plans are no longer accepted, if you wish to set up a new regular investment instruction on the Receiving Fund, you may do so via eScheduler on J.P. Morgan eTrading platform (now branded as J.P. Morgan DIRECT Investment Platform). If you invest through a bank, a distributor other than JPMorgan Funds (Asia) Limited or a financial adviser, please note that the arrangement of your regular investment plan may be different. You are advised to contact your bank, distributor or financial adviser should you have any questions.

² The eScheduler is only available to clients dealing via J.P. Morgan eTrading platform (now branded as J.P. Morgan DIRECT Investment Platform) in Hong Kong. Please note that your existing eScheduler with respect to the Merging Fund will be suspended after 5:00 p.m. (Hong Kong time) on 12 September 2024. If you wish to set up a new eScheduler instruction on the Receiving Fund, you may do so via J.P. Morgan eTrading platform (now branded as J.P. Morgan DIRECT Investment Platform).

³ Please note that although we will not impose any charges in respect of your redemption/switching instructions, your bank, distributor, financial adviser or pension scheme trustee or administrator may charge you redemption/switching and/or transaction fees and may impose different dealing arrangements. You are advised to contact your bank, distributor or financial adviser, pension scheme trustee or administrator should you have any questions.

⁴ Please note that, as provided in the relevant offering documents of the funds, the Manager or the Hong Kong representative (as applicable) of each such fund has the discretion to accept or reject in whole or in part any application for units or shares (as the case may be) in the fund.

Fund upwards on the Merger Date in accordance with the base terms of the Receiving Fund, which in turn may impact the number of units in the Receiving Fund that you may receive. For details of the adjustment mechanism, please refer to the “SWING PRICING” section in the Consolidated Explanatory Memoranda.

The transaction costs associated with portfolio rebalancing of the Merging Fund in preparation for the Merger (see Enclosure II for details), estimated to be approximately 0.67% of the net asset value of the Merging Fund as of 27 May 2024, will be borne by the Merging Fund. Please note that unitholders who remain in the Merging Fund when such portfolio rebalancing is carried out will be impacted. The legal, mailing and other administrative expenses associated with the Merger are estimated to be approximately 0.07% of the net asset value of the Merging Fund as of 27 May 2024 and will also be borne by the Merging Fund. There are no unamortised establishment costs outstanding relating to the Merging Fund.

The Merger will have no Hong Kong profits tax implications to the Merging Fund or the Receiving Fund. Unitholders of the Merging Fund should note that the exchange of units in the Merging Fund for units in the Receiving Fund pursuant to the Merger may be considered as a disposal of the units in the Merging Fund for tax purposes and any gains derived may be subject to tax. Generally, unitholders will not be liable to Hong Kong profits tax on gains realised on the disposal of units, except where the acquisition and disposal of units are or form part of a trade, profession or business carried on by the unitholders in Hong Kong and the gains are revenue in nature for Hong Kong profits tax purposes. The classification of a gain as revenue or capital will depend on the particular circumstances of the unitholders (i.e. their own individual tax residency status). Unitholders should take advice from their own professional advisors as to their particular tax position.

1. The Trustee and the Manager shall transfer all the Merging Fund's assets (after deduction of such amount as the Trustee and the Manager determine to be appropriate to meet all outstanding liabilities of the Merging Fund) to the Receiving Fund on the Merger Date in consideration for the issue of units of the Receiving Fund to the unitholders of the Merging Fund (the "Unitholders").
2. Rebalancing of the assets in the Merging Fund will be required in preparation for the Merger. All or part of the Merging Fund's assets will be held in cash for a short period in preparation for the Merger, resulting in the Merging Fund not following its investment policy and investment restrictions, and having less market exposure which may have a positive or negative impact on performance. It is expected that the Manager will commence the rebalancing no earlier than 15 business days prior to the Merger Date. The transaction costs associated with portfolio rebalancing, estimated to be approximately 0.67% of the net asset value of the Merging Fund as of 27 May 2024, will be borne by the Merging Fund. Please note that unitholders who remain in the Merging Fund when such portfolio rebalancing is carried out will be impacted.
3. The Merging Fund shall terminate on the Merger Date following the final transfer (in accordance with paragraph 1 above) of the Merging Fund's assets to the Receiving Fund.
4. The Trustee and the Manager will take reasonable care to ensure the provision for liabilities of the Merging Fund to be a fair estimate. If there shall be any surplus after discharging all outstanding liabilities of the Merging Fund, the Manager shall arrange for that surplus to be transferred to the Receiving Fund. If the provision for liabilities is insufficient to discharge all outstanding liabilities of the Merging Fund, the Manager shall bear the deficit at its own cost.
5. The issue of units of the Receiving Fund shall be made to Unitholders on the basis of the following formula:

$$N = C / P$$

Where:

N = Number of units in the relevant class of the Receiving Fund (rounded to 3 decimal places²) issued to the Unitholder

P = Net asset value per unit of the relevant class of the Receiving Fund (rounded to 2 decimal places)

C = M x Q with the resultant sum rounded to 2 decimal places

M = Number of units and fractions thereof in the relevant class of the Merging Fund held by the Unitholder

Q = Net asset value per unit of the relevant class of the Merging Fund (rounded to 4 decimal places³) after the deduction of an appropriate amount as set out in paragraph 1 above.

¹ Capitalised terms used herein shall have the same meanings as in the Notice of Merger of JPMorgan Philippine Fund into JPMorgan ASEAN Fund that this Enclosure II is enclosed to and the trust deed of the Merging Fund, unless otherwise defined.

² Due to rounding adjustment, please note that you may not receive any units in the Receiving Fund in case the number of units of the Receiving Fund issued to you pursuant to the Merger is less than 0.001.

³ Please note that this rounding treatment only applies to the Merger in the calculation of the number of units in the Receiving Fund that will be issued to Unitholders, and is intended to reduce the impact of rounding in the calculation so that the number of units that Unitholders will receive will more accurately reflect the value of their holdings in the Merging Fund on the Merger Date.

Enclosure II

6. Where the net capital inflow of the Receiving Fund on the Merger Date (including any cash transfer from the Merging Fund) exceeds the threshold pre-determined by the Manager from time to time, the Manager may make adjustment to the net asset value per unit of the Receiving Fund upwards on the Merger Date in accordance with the base terms of the Receiving Fund, which in turn may impact the number of units in the Receiving Fund that you may receive. For details of the adjustment mechanism, please refer to the “SWING PRICING” section in the Consolidated Explanatory Memoranda.
7. All liabilities attributable to the Merging Fund or the Receiving Fund prior to the Merger Date shall be binding solely upon the Merging Fund or the Receiving Fund as the case may be. In calculating the liabilities of the Merging Fund or the Receiving Fund for the purposes of the net asset value, the Manager or, as the case may be, the manager of the Receiving Fund shall value such liabilities in accordance with the normal accounting policies or valuation principles of the Merging Fund or the Receiving Fund, as the case may be.
8. The provisions in this Enclosure shall have effect subject to such modifications or additions as the Manager and the Trustee may from time to time approve in writing and consider it is in the best interests of Unitholders.
